Your 12 questions, answered

One-line answers first. Each one points to the part that explains it properly.

1. What is the Sales & Marketing role? → p.4

The bridge between LAM's investment teams and clients' money: marketing explains the product, sales wins the money, client service keeps it. [N1]

2. What is marketing at Lazard? → p.6

Brand, differentiation and 'qualified leads' to drive revenue [M2]. CMO Joanne Choi: 'lead and revenue generation' [M5].

3. Most popular way they market? → p.10

Thought leadership (weekly and monthly expert notes, outlooks) plus campaign web pages, pushed by email and LinkedIn, then carried into meetings by salespeople [M6][M15][M23].

4. TV adverts? → p.7

No. Clients are professionals, FCA rules make fund adverts hard, and much content is professional-only. LAM appears on Bloomberg TV as an expert, which is free [M48][M56].

5. Which clients? → p.8

Mostly organisations: pension funds, insurers, sovereign funds, wealth managers, platforms. About 18% from family offices and wealthy individuals [N11].

6. Which channels? → p.9

Featured web pages, thought-leadership series, email, LinkedIn, trade press, platform buy lists, awards, consultant relations and RFPs [M6]-[M37].

7. What is a campaign? Is it a cycle? → p.16

A coordinated push behind one investment idea (e.g. 'A New Chapter in Emerging Markets'). Yes, it loops: plan → create → approve → launch → sell → measure [M8] Inferred .

8. Marketing vs fundraising? → p.14

Marketing creates interest. Fundraising is a time-limited drive to fill a closed private fund. LAM mostly does ongoing 'asset gathering', not fundraising [N34][N15].

9. Quick fundraising or long-term? → p.13

Long-term relationships. Institutional sales take 12-24 months; clients can leave on 30 days' notice, so keeping them is half the job [N33][N11].

10. Sales and fundraising goals? → p.20

2025: $50bn gross inflow target, beaten with $63.2bn. 2026: a higher internal target and positive net flows. Lazard 2030: double revenue [N16][N22].

11. Events hosted annually? → p.18

No public, named annual LAM client conference found. Confirmed: intern events, expert speaking slots, a 2025 Future Proof partnership [M1][M39].

12. Most trending product? → p.21

Quant 'Equity Advantage': doubled to about $50bn in a year; Europe ex-UK version launched 30 Sep 2026. Runners-up: emerging markets, active ETFs [N18][N29].

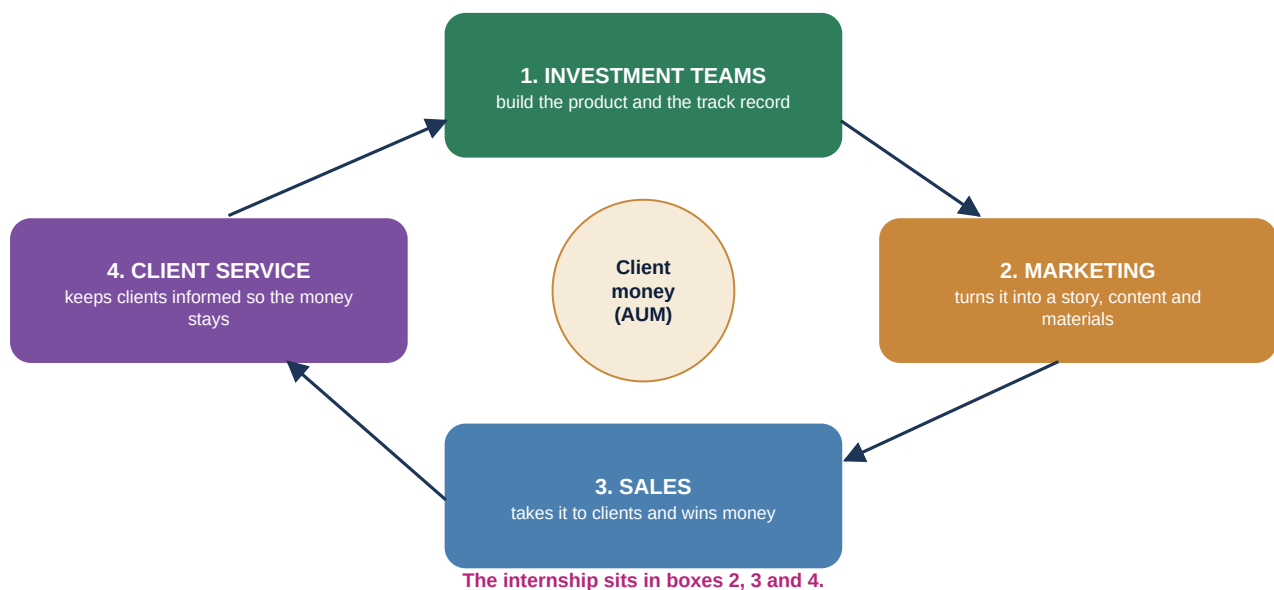

PART 1

The role from zero

What sales and marketing actually means at an asset manager, before any Lazard detail.

An asset manager has a product (investment strategies) and needs customers (people and organisations with money to invest). Sales and Marketing is the bridge. Marketing makes the product understandable and credible. Sales takes it to specific clients and wins their money. Client service keeps that money once it arrives.

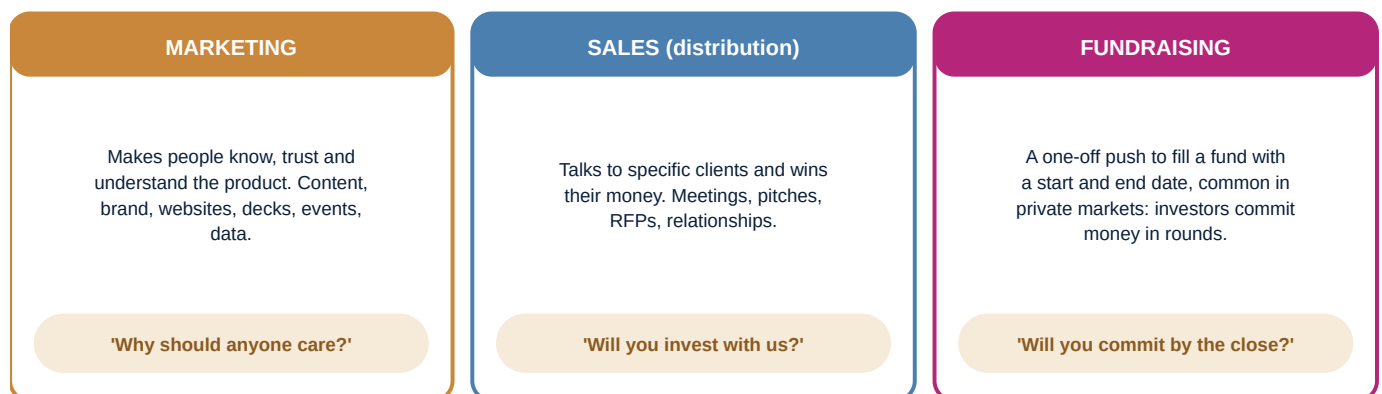

The engine of an asset manager: four jobs that feed each other

The engine

Source: Author's diagram Inferred. The JD says S&M teams are 'key to the continued growth of our business, the development of our products, getting our message heard and managing client relationships' [N1].

Marketing vs sales vs fundraising

Three words people mix up

Source: Author's definitions Inferred; detail and Lazard examples follow in Part 4.

KEY TERM · DISTRIBUTION

The industry word for 'sales'. An asset manager's 'distribution team' is everyone who gets the product to clients: salespeople, consultant relations, client service and marketing support.

KEY TERM · B2B

Business-to-business. Most of LAM's customers are organisations (pension funds, insurers, wealth managers), not individuals. That shapes everything: fewer, bigger customers, long relationships, no TV ads.

PART 2

What marketing is at LAM

Who does it, how it works, why there are no TV adverts, which channels they use and who they are trying to reach.

2.1 Marketing in one sentence

At LAM, marketing is not about adverts. It is the team that turns investment ideas into stories, content and materials, so the salespeople can win and keep clients' money.

"Our Marketing team plays a critical role in driving revenue growth by enhancing brand awareness, differentiating our investment solutions, and generating qualified leads."

LAM New York marketing internship posting, Sep 2026 [M2]

Read that sentence as three jobs:

Job	Plain English	LAM example
Brand awareness	Make sure the right people know LAM exists and trust it	Ron Temple's weekly 'Behind the Headlines' notes [M15]
Differentiate solutions	Explain why this fund is different from the 100 others	'Not All Infrastructure Is Created Equal' [M9]
Qualified leads	Find people genuinely likely to invest and hand them to sales	'Subscribe Now' buttons on the EM page [M8]; intern task: 'Prioritise extensive potential prospect lists' [M1]

"...enhance the client experience, with a clear focus on lead and revenue generation."

Joanne Choi on joining as Chief Marketing Officer, July 2021 [M5]

SAY THIS

"Marketing at LAM exists to drive revenue: brand, differentiation and qualified leads, as your own posting says."

2.2 Who does it

How LAM marketing is organised (global engine + London teams)

The marketing organisation

Source: NY posting: five departments, GMSO, Workfront, Jira, regional partners [M2]; Choi bio [M4]; London six departments [M1]. Layout is the author's Inferred .

KEY TERM · GMSO

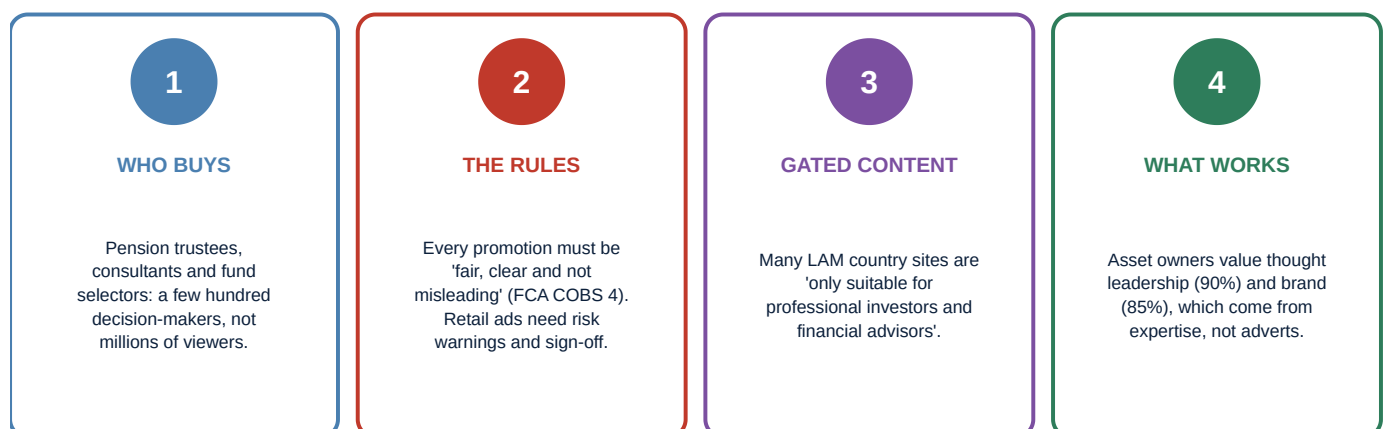

Global Marketing Solutions & Operations. The team that runs marketing like a factory: requests arrive through an intake form in Adobe Workfront, then get planned as 'sprints' in Jira and Confluence [M2]. It shows that marketing at LAM is a production system with deadlines, not just creative ideas.

Other related roles: Robert Connin, Head of Business Intelligence, leads "market and competitive intelligence to better inform client engagement" [M37]. That links straight to your JD line "Conduct competitive analysis". Communications (press) is separate, led by Zoe Hyde, Head of Global Communications, London [M22].

2.3 Is it TV adverts?

No. No evidence of TV, radio, billboard, airport or sports-sponsorship adverts for LAM was found Confirmed . Lazard is not one of the 19 firms funding the Investment Association's 2026 UK retail TV-style campaign (founders include Fidelity, Vanguard, Schroders, L&G) [M53].

Why LAM does not buy TV ads: four reasons

Why not TV

Source: FCA COBS 4.2.1R and 4.10 [M48][M49]; FCA 'media-neutral' guidance [M50]; LAM site gating [M6]; Cerulli asset-owner survey [M51].

"A firm must ensure that a communication or a financial promotion is fair, clear and not misleading."

FCA Handbook, COBS 4.2.1R [M48]

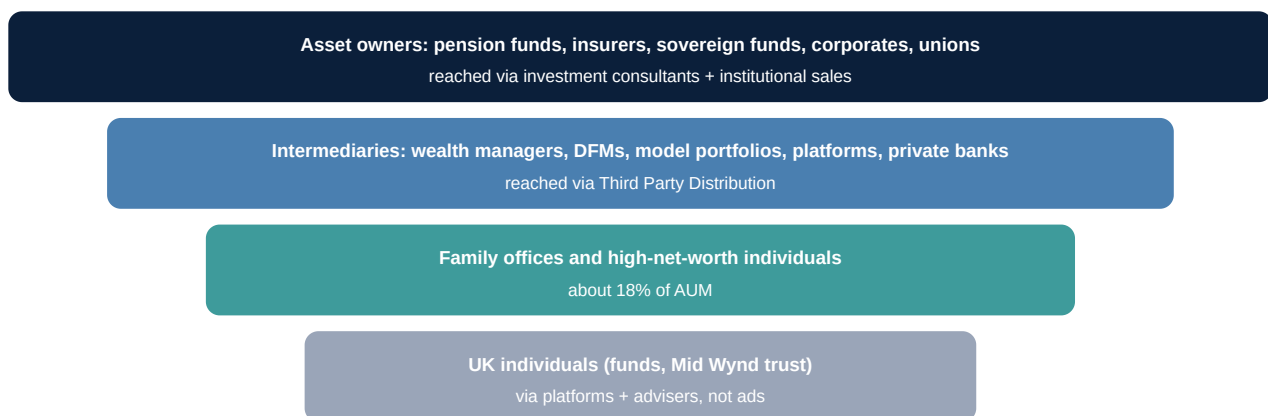

KEY TERM · FINANCIAL PROMOTION

Any communication that invites people to invest. In the UK it must be approved by an authorised firm and meet FCA rules. Every LAM brochure, web page and LinkedIn post about a fund goes through compliance first.

But LAM does appear on TV, as an expert, for free. Chief Market Strategist Ron Temple has appeared on Bloomberg Television [M56], and the CIO Eric Van Nostrand has done recent Bloomberg clips [M23]. That is called earned media: credible, unpaid and aimed at exactly the professional audience LAM wants.

2.4 Who they market to

Who LAM markets to (and through whom)

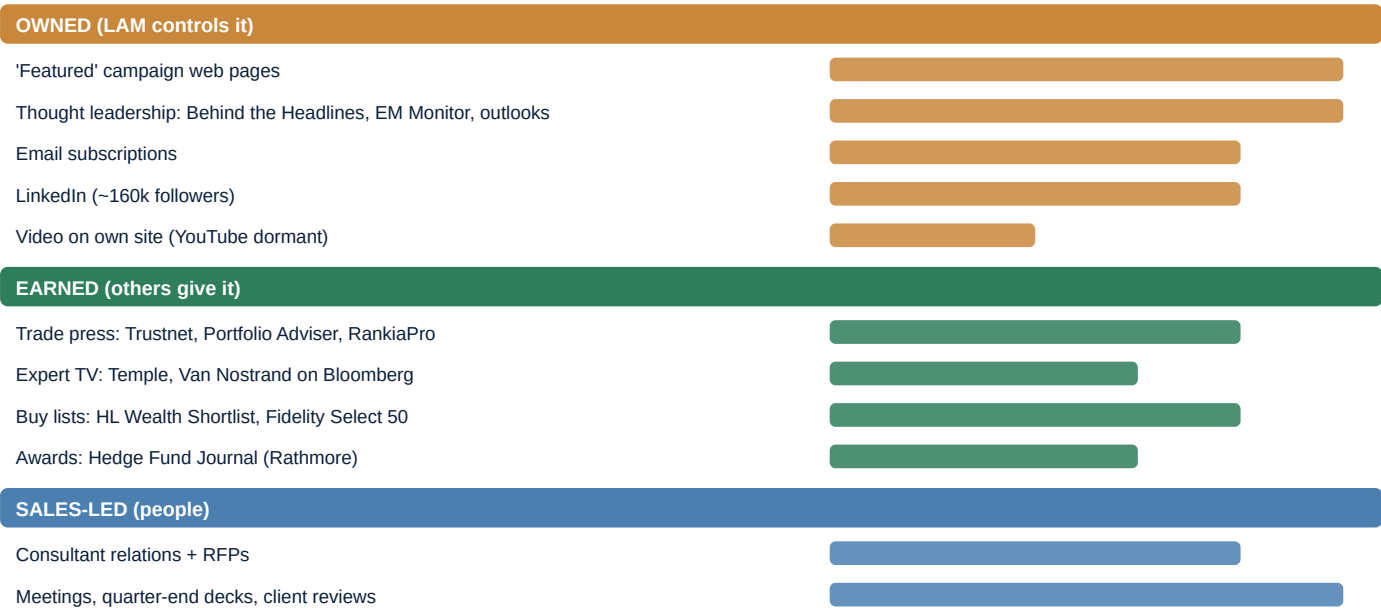

Target clients

Source: 10-K client mix (82% institutional/intermediary, 18% family offices and HNW) [N11]; UK site audience options and 'directly, via investment platforms, or with the help of a financial adviser' [M6].

The website literally asks you to pick: "Institutional Investor", "Financial Intermediary" or "Individual Investor" [M6]. Each audience gets different content. Most country sites are professional-only; the UK site is unusual in also speaking to individuals [M6].

2.5 The channels they use

LAM's marketing channels, grouped by type (thicker bar = more evidence of use)

Not found publicly: TV/print adverts, an active podcast, a public webinar programme.

Channel map

Source: Featured pages [M6][M8]-[M13]; series [M14]-[M17]; LinkedIn [M23]; YouTube [M24]; press [M27]-[M29]; buy lists [M31][M33]; awards [M11]; consultants [M37]. Bar lengths are the author's judgement of evidence Inferred.

Channel	What it is	LAM evidence
Campaign web pages	A landing page per big idea, in the site's 'Featured' menu	Emerging Markets, Global Listed Infrastructure, US Small Cap, Quantitative Strategies, Rathmore [M6]
Thought leadership	Regular articles from experts that show LAM is smart	Behind the Headlines (weekly, Ron Temple) [M15]; EM Monitor (monthly) [M6]; Beyond the Numbers [M16]; Mid-Year Outlook [M6]
Email	Subscribers get each new piece; the main way to capture leads	'Subscribe for updates' / 'Subscribe Now' [M8][M15][M17]
LinkedIn	Main social channel; reuses campaign copy	159,933 followers; quant post mirrors the Advantage page wording [M23]
Trade press	Journalists covering fund launches and managers	Trustnet and Portfolio Adviser (30 Sep 2026), RankiaPro (1 Oct 2026) [M27]-[M29]
Buy lists and ratings	Platforms' lists of recommended funds that advisers copy	HL Wealth Shortlist: Global Equity Franchise, Jan 2025 [M31]; Fidelity Select 50: Lazard Emerging Markets [M33]
Awards	Independent prizes used as proof	Hedge Fund Journal 2026 UCITS award for Rathmore [M11]
Consultant relations / RFPs	Keeping pension consultants informed and answering questionnaires	Keith Wosneski, Global Head of Consultant Relations, Aug 2025 [M37]

"Email remains, and will remain, the most crucial element of all digital marketing strategies."

Cerulli Associates, industry research [M51]

CHECK BEFORE YOU QUOTE

YouTube has 301 subscribers and nothing new for about 3 years [M24]; no active podcast or public webinar programme was found. Don't claim LAM is big on these.

2.6 So what is the most popular way they market?

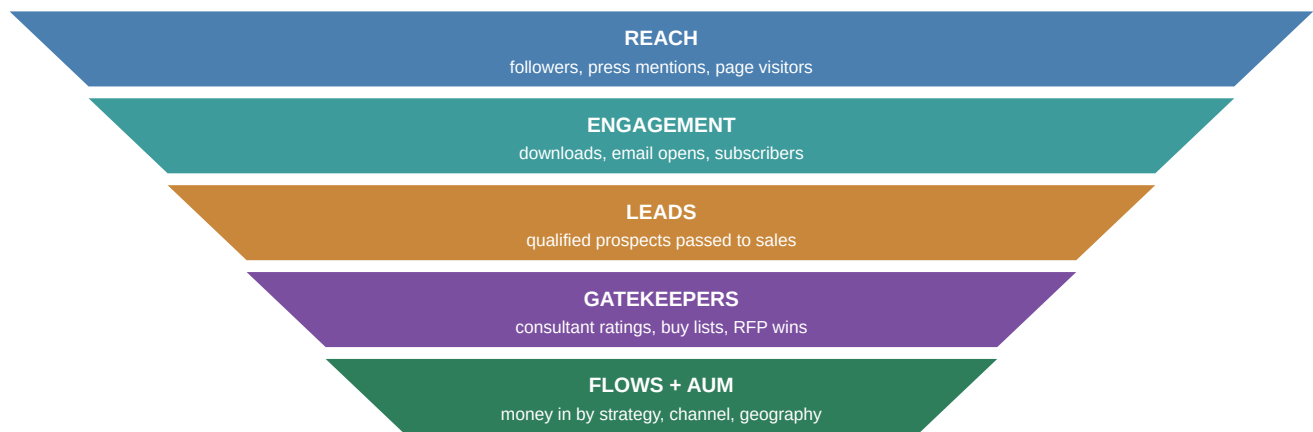

PICTURE IT

Thought leadership plus campaign pages, pushed by email and LinkedIn, then carried into meetings by salespeople. If you remember one thing: LAM markets by being visibly expert (weekly notes, outlooks, brochures) and by getting third parties (buy lists, consultants, journalists) to vouch for it.

Industry research backs this: asset owners rank "demonstration of strong expertise through thought leadership (90%), and a well-known brand (85%)" as most important when hiring a manager [M51].

2.7 Marketing goals and how they are measured

How marketing success is measured: the KPI ladder

The KPI ladder

Source: LAM postings: 'qualified leads' [M2]; prospect lists [M1]; flows 'by strategy, channel and geography' [M3]; consultant ratings [M37]. Ladder structure is the author's Inferred.

No public LAM marketing target (e.g. a follower or lead number) was found. The real yardstick is money: the AUM Reporting team builds dashboards on "flows, revenue and business performance by strategy, channel and geography" for "Senior Management, Distribution, Product" [M3]. The firm-level targets marketing supports are in Part 5.

PART 3

How LAM sells

Who the salespeople call, how a sale actually happens, and why it is a long-term relationship game, not quick fundraising.

Four ways LAM's money comes in

The four sales channels

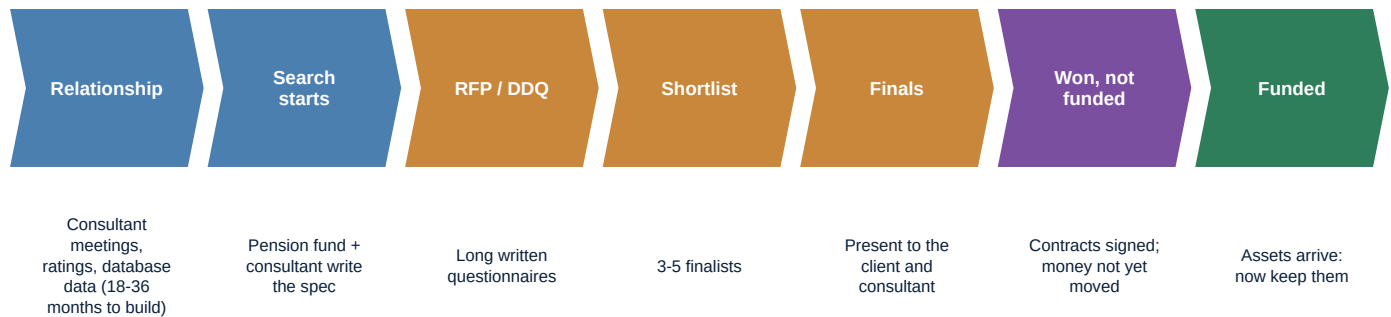

Source: LAM UK contact page (team names and remits) [N25]; US postings for internal/external wholesalers [N3][N4][N5]; 10-K client mix [N11].

3.1 Who they sell to

About 82% of LAM's money comes from "institutional and intermediary clients, including corporations, labor unions, pension funds, insurance companies and banks... sub-advisory relationships, mutual fund sponsors, broker-dealers and registered advisors". About 18% comes from "family offices and high net worth individuals" [N11]. So LAM sells mostly to organisations, not the public.

3.2 Institutional: the long game

An institutional sale: typically 12-24 months from need to money arriving

LAM's 'won but not yet funded' pipeline was $13bn at end-2025, and higher again by mid-2026.

The institutional sales cycle

Source: Industry guide: 'typically spans 12-24 months from initial need to funded mandate'; 3-5 finalists; consultant relationships take 18-36 months [N33] (industry-generic). LAM pipeline: Q4 2025 and Q2 2026 calls [N16][N18].

KEY TERM · INVESTMENT CONSULTANT

A firm (e.g. Mercer, WTW) that pension funds pay to research and recommend managers. If a consultant rates you badly, you rarely get shortlisted. LAM's annual report lists 'poor reviews' by consultants as a business risk [N11].

KEY TERM · RFP / DDQ

Request for proposal / due diligence questionnaire: long standard questionnaires every competing manager fills in. Lazard's Paris sister firm keeps answer libraries in software called Qvidian [N8].

A real example of what the institutional team wins: "nearly $700 million from a UK institutional client for Japanese strategic equity" (Q4 2025 call) [N16].

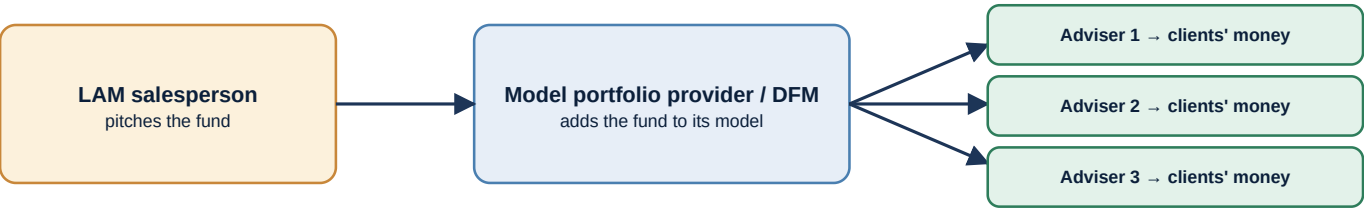

"We have institutional that by its nature is lumpier with big mandates that we can win and also big mandates we can see redeemed."

Chris Hogbin, LAM CEO, Q2 2026 call [N18]

3.3 Third Party Distribution: breadth and steady flows

London's wholesale team is Tony Maddock, Head of UK Third Party Distribution, with four Regional Sales Managers who each own a patch of the UK: London & South East; Midlands, South West & Offshore; Scotland, Northern Ireland & Northern England; Northern Home Counties & East Anglia [N25]. A sales support desk under Laura Bourke backs them up [N25].

Why one wholesale win can mean steady monthly money

Every adviser using that model invests automatically each month.

That's why Tony Maddock pitched the new Equity Advantage fund at 'portfolio builders and model portfolio service providers'.

How a wholesale win multiplies

Source: Author's diagram Inferred ; Maddock quote, Trustnet, 30 Sep 2026 [N29].

"We will continue to invest in our global distribution efforts... with particular emphasis on the third-party distribution market."

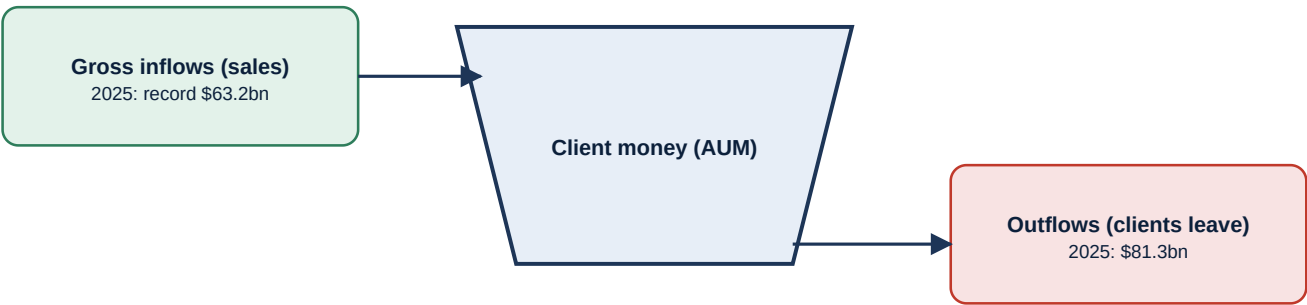

'Lazard 2030' update, 10 Sep 2025 [N23]

3.4 Quick fundraising or long-term relationships?

Long-term relationships. The evidence all points one way:

Fact	What it tells you
Contracts are 'generally terminable at any time or on notice of 30 days or less' [N11]	Clients can leave in a month, so keeping them is constant work
Top 10 clients hold 24% of AUM [N11]	A few relationships carry huge weight
One US client leaving caused −$19.7bn in Q4 2025 [N12]	Losing one relationship can wipe out a year of sales
$13bn 'won but not yet funded' at end-2025 [N16]	Deals are agreed months before money moves
US sales job ads ask people to 'build and maintain meaningful, long-term relationships' [N4]	Relationship language is in the job description itself
London internship wants people 'passionate about client servicing, sales support, and relationship management' [N1]	So does yours

2025 net flows: −$18.1bn (one big low-fee client left). H1 2026: +$7.4bn.

The bucket picture

Source: FY2025 gross inflows and outflows from the 10-K AUM roll-forward [N11]; net flows [N12][N14].

3.5 Marketing vs sales vs fundraising, at Lazard

Word	What it means	Lazard example
Sales / distribution	Owning client relationships and winning mandates or fund flows. Measured as gross sales, outflows and net flows.	UK institutional and TPD teams [N25]; US job ads: 'meet or exceed gross and net sales targets' [N4]
Marketing	Making selling possible and scalable: positioning, decks, factsheets, RFP content, campaigns, events, digital, data.	NY marketing: 'enhancing brand awareness, differentiating our investment solutions, and generating qualified leads' [N10]
Client service	Reporting, meetings and requests after money arrives. The retention engine.	Client Service Associates in the London Institutions team [N25]
Fundraising	A time-limited push to gather commitments to a closed-end private fund, with a 'first close' and 'final close' [N34].	Mostly NOT LAM. Lazard's new Lazard CL (Campbell Lutyens) raises money for other private-markets firms: 'Over $190 billion of capital raised for clients over the past two years' [N15]

DON'T SAY THIS

"LAM does fundraising." For most of LAM the accurate words are 'asset gathering', 'winning mandates' or 'driving net flows'. Fundraising describes private-markets funds, and the big fundraising business at Lazard (Lazard CL) sits in Advisory, not LAM [N15].

PART 4

What a campaign is, and the events

A campaign is not an advert. It is a coordinated push behind one investment idea, run as a repeating cycle.

4.1 What a campaign means in asset management

A campaign is a planned, time-bound push behind one investment idea or product, where every piece of content tells the same story.

It usually bundles: a central story (why invest now); a landing page; a flagship piece (an outlook or brochure); regular follow-up content; sales materials; email and LinkedIn promotion; press, and sometimes a product launch; and measurement of who engaged, passed to sales [M2] Inferred .

PICTURE IT

Think of a film release. There's one film (the fund), one tagline, a trailer (the outlook), posters (the web page), interviews (press and TV appearances), and ticket sales tracked every week (flows). The difference: the audience is professionals, and every poster is checked by compliance first.

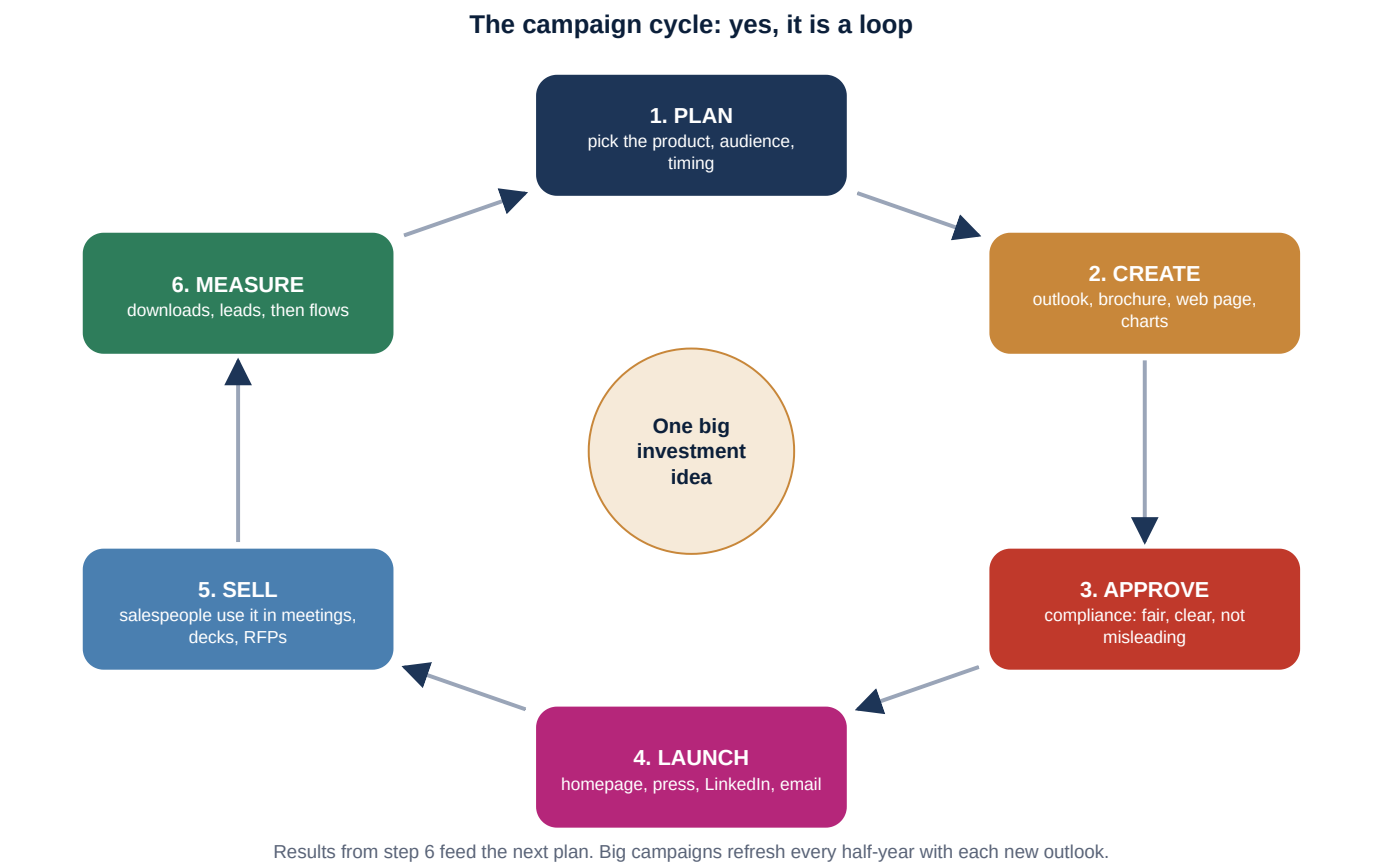

"Within Marketing, our departments (Design, Digital, Financial Writing, Channel Marketing, and Data & Operations) work together to deliver impactful campaigns, compelling content, and data-driven insights..."

LAM NY marketing posting [M2]

KEY TERM · RHYTHM

Campaigns run on several clocks at once: weekly (Behind the Headlines), monthly (EM Monitor), quarterly (quarter-end decks and factsheets), half-yearly (outlooks: '2026' in February, 'H2 2026' mid-year) and one-off launches (a new fund or ETF) [M15][M6][M8][M1].

4.2 Is it a cycle? Yes

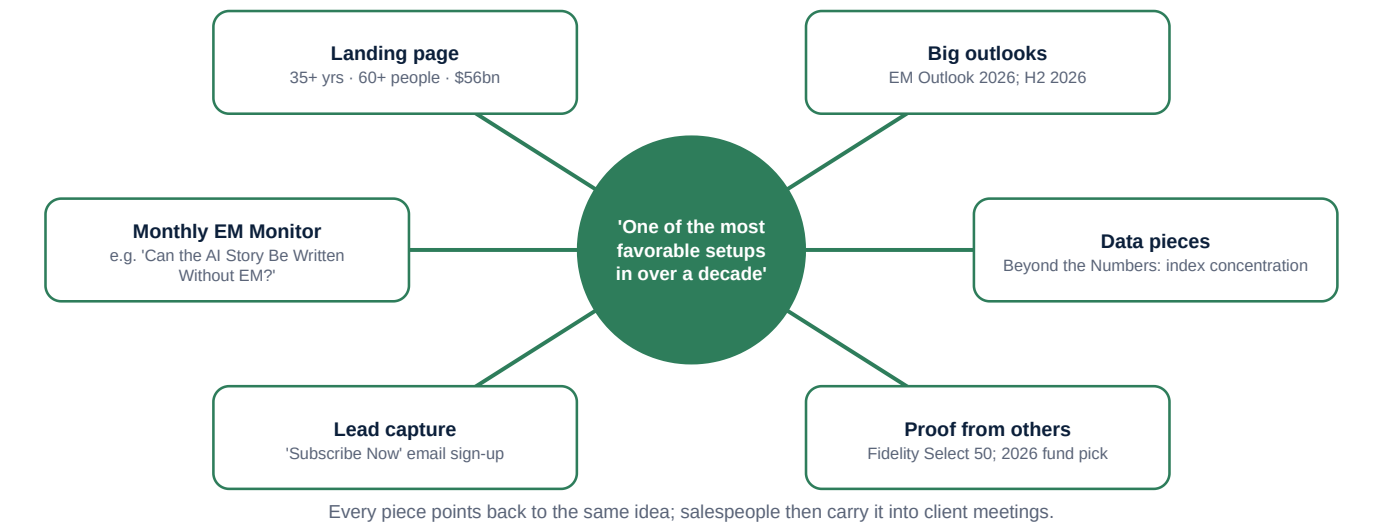

The campaign cycle
Source: Steps synthesised from the NY posting (departments, GMSO, Workfront) [M2], FCA approval rules [M48][M49] and LAM examples [M6][M8][M27]. Cycle shape is industry-generic Inferred .

Step	Who at LAM	Real example
1. Plan	Product, distribution and marketing; GMSO logs the request in Workfront [M2]	Hogbin: 'The most important thing we can do there is to scale our existing products' [M46]
2. Create	Financial Writing, Design, Digital [M2]	GLI brochure 'Not All Infrastructure Is Created Equal', 31 Mar 2026 [M18]
3. Approve	Compliance	Long 'Important Information' disclaimers on every featured page [M9][M11]
4. Launch	Digital, Communications	Homepage hero 'Emerging Markets Outlook: H2 2026' [M6]
5. Sell	Sales, Consultant Relations, client service	Interns 'Update quarter-end presentations for portfolio managers and sales representatives' [M1]
6. Measure	Data & Operations, AUM Reporting	Flows 'by strategy, channel and geography' [M3]

4.3 Five real LAM campaigns

CHECK BEFORE YOU QUOTE

The UK press names the fund 'Lazard Europe ex-UK Equity Advantage fund'; RankiaPro says 'Lazard European Equity Advantage Fund' [M27][M29]. Use the UK name in a UK interview. Also: the GLI brochure is dated 31 March 2026, not September.

DON'T SAY THIS

"My campaign" or "Lazard's TV campaign". Say "the Emerging Markets campaign on your website" or "the GLI content programme".

4.4 What events does LAM host each year?

Honest answer: no named, recurring, public LAM client conference was found Confirmed . Asset managers often run invitation-only client dinners, roundtables and due-diligence days that are never advertised, so "not found" means "not public", not "doesn't exist" Inferred .

Events: what is confirmed vs what is not

CONFIRMED	NOT LAM (Financial Advisory)	NOT FOUND PUBLICLY
● Intern business, training and social events + senior panel (JD) ● Ron Temple speaking at outside events (e.g. Economic Club of Florida) ● Hogbin at UBS Financial Services Conference, Feb 2026 (investor event) ● Future Proof (US wealth festival) partner in 2025 ● NCPERS (US pensions body) member since 2006	● Financial Services Client Summit, NY ● Lazard T500 conference, London ● Spring Insight Programme	● A named annual LAM client conference ● Public webinars 2025-26 ● PLSA / Citywire / Investment Week sponsorship

YOUR TURN

A strong interview question: "What role does Central Marketing Services play in client events, and what does a typical client event look like at LAM London?" It shows you know the department names and that you didn't invent facts.

PART 5

Goals, results and what's trending

The numbers sales and marketing are chasing, how they're doing, and which products clients want most.

5.1 The goals

Level	Goal	Source
Lazard (whole firm)	'double firm-wide revenue by 2030, with the increases split roughly evenly between Asset Management and Advisory'	Orszag memo, Sep 2023 [N22]
Lazard	'average annual shareholder return of at least 10 to 15 percent per year'	2030 update, Sep 2025 [N23]
LAM 2025 sales	Gross inflows target of $50bn: beaten with a record $63.2bn	Q4 2025 call [N16]; 10-K [N11]
LAM 2026 sales	An internal gross inflow goal 'above the goal that we set for last year'	Hogbin, Q4 2025 call [N16]
LAM 2026 flows	'positive net flows' for the year	Annual letter [N24]; Q2 call [N18]
LAM priorities	New 'modalities' (active ETFs, 'including in Europe'); more wealth offerings; third-party distribution; margin expansion	2030 update [N23]
Costs	Adjusted compensation ratio of 60% or below; non-comp 16-20%	Results releases [N13][N14]

"if you think about net flows, it's the difference between two big numbers ... we're budgeting for strong gross inflows again. Our goal, internal goal, is above the goal that we set for last year."

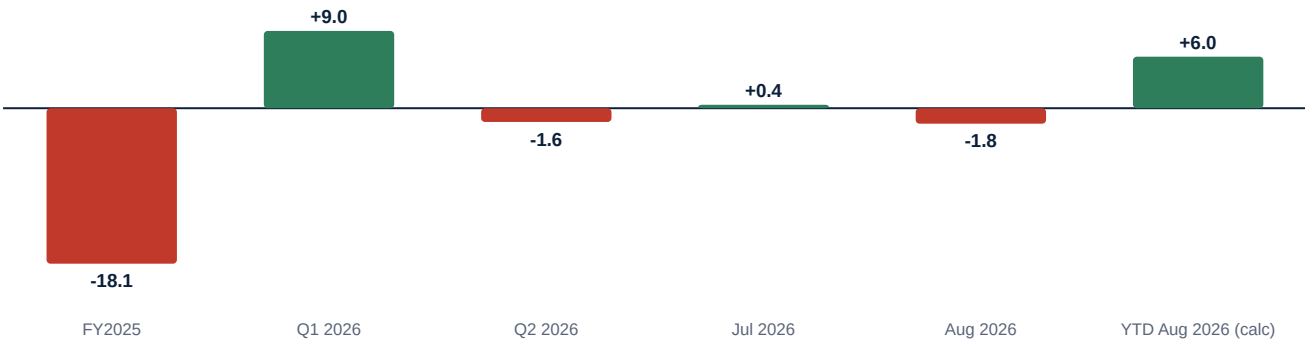

Chris Hogbin, Q4 2025 call [N16]

"We achieved record gross inflows that exceeded our target of $50 billion through increased focus and accountability in sales and distribution"

Peter Orszag, Q4 2025 call [N16]

5.2 How it's going

LAM net flows, $bn: the 2026 goal is 'positive net flows for the year'

Net flows so far
Source: FY2025 [N12]; Q1 2026 [N13]; Q2 2026 [N14]; July [N19]; August (preliminary) [N20]; year to date = author's arithmetic. September AUM due ~9-13 Oct; Q3 results 22 Oct 2026 [N21].

Q1 2026 was "the highest level of quarterly net flow in almost 20 years" [N17]. Q2 and August were slightly negative, which Hogbin describes as institutional lumpiness [N18]. The average fee was 44.6 bps in Q1 2026, up from 41.2 bps a year earlier, because higher-fee products are growing [N17].

SAY THIS

"LAM set itself a public goal of positive net flows for 2026. It's about $6bn ahead after August, though Q2 and August were slightly negative. The 22 October results will show whether Q3 held up."

5.3 What's trending

What's trending at LAM right now (ranked by evidence)

1	Quant: Equity Advantage	more than doubled to ~$50bn in a year
2	Emerging markets equity	AUM +54.6% in a year
3	Global / international equity	$136.7bn, +28%; clients diversifying from the US
4	Japanese equity	~$700m UK institutional win
5	Listed infrastructure	part of the $13bn pipeline; 'quite healthy fees'
6	US active ETFs	$0 → $2bn in ~15 months
7	Fixed income	flat, but UK savers are piling into bonds
8	Alternatives / private	$10.8bn incl. Elaia

Trending products

Source: CFO and CEO remarks, Q2 2026 call [N18]; asset-class AUM, Q2 2026 results [N14]; Q4 2025 wins and pipeline [N16]; Equity Advantage Europe launch [N29].

"Our quantitative equity business, the Lazard Advantage platform, has more than doubled to $50 billion in assets under management in the past year."

Tracy Farr, Lazard CFO, Q2 2026 call [N18]

"new mandates in the quarter reflect ongoing demand for our quant platform, emerging markets, Japanese equity, international equities, fixed income, and private markets."

Q2 2026 call [N18]

What UK buyers want right now

UK savers put £894m into funds in August 2026, the tenth month in a row of inflows. The best-selling sectors were Strategic Bond (£367m), Volatility Managed (£338m), Global (£256m) and Global Emerging Markets (£253m). Mixed asset was the only asset class with inflows every month of 2026 [N30]. Across Europe, active ETFs took a record $33.9bn in the eight months to August [N32].

SAY THIS

"The trend I'd point to is quant. LAM's Equity Advantage platform doubled to about $50bn in a year, and in September LAM launched a Europe ex-UK version aimed at UK model-portfolio builders, who want exactly what it promises: controlled risk and a predictable style."

"Our Sales and Marketing teams are key to the continued growth of our business, the development of our products, getting our message heard and managing client relationships."

JD, Req 6673 [N1]

That one sentence names four jobs: growth (sales), product development (feeding client needs back to product teams), getting our message heard (marketing) and managing relationships (client service).

6.2 The six departments

The six departments, and who leads that work in London

Six departments mapped to London people

Source: Department names [N1]; London people and remits from the LAM UK contact page [N25]; Wosneski [N27]; Choi [M4]. Mapping people to departments is the author's Inferred.

KEY TERM · ENGAGE INVESTORS AND THEIR REPRESENTATIVES

The JD says the teams 'engage investors and their representatives to identify investment needs' [N1].

'Representatives' means consultants, wealth managers and platforms: the gatekeepers who decide on behalf of the real owners of the money.

6.3 Each responsibility, line by line

1. "Work with marketers to better understand Lazard Asset Management's diverse client base and products."

What it means: Learn the fund range and who buys what: MPS providers buy Equity Advantage for 'a predictable style profile' [N29]; institutions buy EM and infrastructure mandates [N16].

Prep: Read the five Featured pages and Part 5 of this guide.

2. "Research major industry trends to drive sales channel business."

What it means: Turn market data into a short slide a salesperson can use: e.g. UK savers piling into bonds (IA August data) [N30]; record European active ETF inflows [N32].

Prep: Follow Trustnet / Investment Week; know one trend cold.

3. "Prioritise extensive potential prospect lists based on firm strengths and client needs."

What it means: Take a long list of prospects (e.g. UK DFMs running model portfolios) and rank them by fit. The US desk does the same: 'leverage CRM data to prioritize market opportunities based on revenue potential' [N3].

Prep: Excel sorting, filters, a simple scoring system.

4. "Work alongside Client Service Associates to complete client requests."

What it means: Help send performance reports, holdings and answers to client questions. Retention matters: contracts are terminable on '30 days or less' notice [N11].

Prep: Accuracy, speed, care.

5. "Conduct analysis using internal and external research tools to further develop client relationships."

What it means: Use databases and CRM (Salesforce [N3]) to profile a client: what they own, where LAM could fit.

Prep: Curiosity; say you'd learn Morningstar / Salesforce fast.

6. "Update quarter-end presentations for portfolio managers and sales representatives."

What it means: After each quarter, refresh performance tables and commentary in standard decks. Detail-heavy PowerPoint.

Prep: PowerPoint precision; checking numbers twice.

7. "Automate marketing functions to streamline processes."

What it means: Find a repetitive task (factsheet tables, data pulls, RFP formatting) and automate it with Excel, Python or AI. Unique to the London JD [N1][N2].

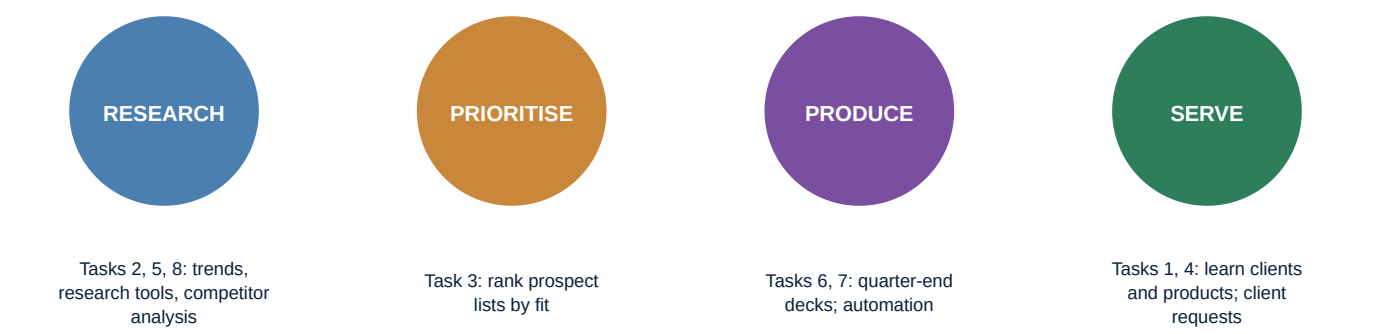

Prep: Any small automation you've built is gold here.

8. "Conduct competitive analysis using qualitative and quantitative metrics."

What it means: Compare LAM funds with rivals on performance, fees, size, flows (quant) and team, process, ratings (qual).

Prep: Know 2-3 rivals (e.g. Schroders, M&G, Fidelity) for one LAM fund.

The 8 tasks group into 4 skills

Four skills behind eight tasks

Source: Grouping is the author's Inferred , based on JD lines [N1].

6.4 The programme itself

Your 6 weeks (June-August), roughly

Mentor, rotation, events and the project are in the JD; the week-by-week order is an illustration only.

Six weeks at a glance

Source: JD: induction, mentor, rotation, events, project, senior panel [N1]. Weekly order illustrative only Inferred .

Feature	JD wording [N1]	What it means for you
Mentor	'mentored by an experienced team member who will guide you throughout'	One named person to ask questions of; use them
Rotation	'hands-on experience working across the various Sales & Marketing departments'	You'll see institutional, wholesale and marketing work
Events	'business, training, and social events'	Networking is part of the job
Project	'evaluate a real opportunity, product or challenge... present your findings and recommendations to a panel of senior management'	A real business question, judged by senior people
Conversion	'hope to offer this year's candidates the opportunity to join us after their studies'	It's a route to a graduate job. Karissa Shah went from 2020 intern to Alternatives Distribution [N25]

6.5 What they are looking for

All from the JD [N1]. Note the balance: half analytical, half people. The role suits someone who likes both spreadsheets and conversations.

6.6 London vs New York: same template, different focus

	London (Req 6673)	New York (Req 6608)
Length	6 weeks [N1]	10 weeks; pro-rated $85,000 salary [N2]
Scope	Six S&M departments	Institutional Client Group

	London (Req 6673)	New York (Req 6608)
Unique task	'Automate marketing functions'	Generative AI familiarity required
Final output	Project for a senior panel	'innovative sales pitch or a white paper'

6.7 Likely project themes

Grounded guesses Inferred based on what LAM is pushing right now:

Theme	Why it's likely
Launching active ETFs in Europe/UK	Lazard 2030: 'As we continue to expand our active ETF offering, including in Europe' [M45]; record European active ETF inflows [N32]
Go-to-market plan for Europe ex-UK Equity Advantage with UK model portfolio providers	Launched 30 Sep 2026, pitched at 'model portfolio service providers' [N29]
Capturing the UK shift into bonds and multi-asset	IA August 2026 data [N30]
Using AI to automate quarter-end decks or RFP answers	JD automation line [N1]; AUM analyst JD: 'Leverage AI to streamline processes' [N6]
Winning more consultant ratings for EM or quant	Consultant Relations hire [N27]; 10-K risk factor [N11]
